

love

everybody keeps talking about where to go or what to see me, I know I don't have the cash but I am where I wanna be la la la la la la la la la

only little things count today I wanna dress as a bird and I wanna fly away little things make me stay
little things count today
little things count today
it's the little things that make life worth living anyway would you pour me a coffee, dear or cut the sausage with a plastic knife oh you want the same story again for you I'd tell it till the end of the time

only little things count today
I wanna dress as a bird and I wanna fly away
little things count today
it's the little things that make life worth living anyway

I wanna roar like a lion I wanna ride a horse on wheels I wanna see the stars through your eyes Pure and crystal clear I wanna laugh, I wanna laugh like you

only little things count today
I wanna dress as a bird and I wanna fly away
la la la la la la la la
little things count today
little things count today
it's the little things that make life worth living anyway
